To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

THE HOP THIS EVENING.—The third hop of the series being given by the Entre Nous club, comes off this evening at the Academy Hall.

THANKSGIVING IN ST. ALBANS.—The attendance at our churches yesterday was not large. The Congregational and Baptist Societies united with the Methodist, and a union service was held at the house of the latter. A sermon appropriate to the day was preached by the Rev. H. K. Cobb, the pastor of the Methodist Society.

At St. Luke's church, the rector, Rev. J. Isham Bliss, officiated, and delivered an interesting discourse on the proceedings of the late national Episcopal Convention in New York City.

The weather was disagreeably unpleasant, and our streets were in a great measure deserted. Inside of many a house, however, there was a merry, joyous time, and little thought was taken of the weather without.

PROPERTY SEIZED.—At the recent term of the United States Court at Windsor, Mrs. Catherine Dillon, of St. Albans, it will be remembered, was fined $1,500 for being engaged in smuggling liquors from Canada, with a further penalty that she be imprisoned until the fine was paid. Failing to pay the fine, Deputy Marshal Flannagan, of Burlington, made his appearance here with the intention of collecting the fine or taking the body of the offender.

Mrs. Dillon having left for parts unknown, Mr. Flannagan to-day made a levy on personal property hereabouts, consisting of horses, cattle, hay, oats, &c., and, with the assistance of Constable Falley and Policeman Downing, has removed it to safe quarters. Mrs. D. will find it difficult to successfully evade the laws of the United States.

NEW SLEEPING CAR.—The Managers of the Vermont Central Railroad, have just added to their already valuable equipment of Sleeping Cars, a new one, just out of the shops at this place, which is vastly superior to its predecessors, and have placed it upon the line between St. Albans and Springfield. The elliptic springs upon which the car is hinged in the trucks, are more numerous and are longer than have been before used, and this must contribute greatly to the ease and comfort of the passengers. The workmanship and splendid finish of this car, does great credit to the taste and ability of Mr. Milton Sessions, the superintendent of the work. It is to be placed in the charge of Mr. Hannaford, the long experienced and popular sleeping car conductor on the New York line to Springfield.

Mr. Sessions has just commenced building another sleeping car, which, when completed will be a palace truly. It will accommodate 68 passengers, and will be run upon two six wheel trucks, after the Western style. This will be something new, for New England. These indications are sufficient to satisfy us that the Central Railroad Company has a paramount regard for the accommodation and comfort of the traveling public and a will to be not outdone, in these respects, by any Railroad Corporation in the United States.

PATENTS.—The Commissioner of patents will be caused to be issued on Tuesday, December 1 234 patents. Number of patents filed during the week ending Saturday, 150, number of caveats filed, 63.

THE Congregational Society of Middlebury has voted a tax of 50 cents on a dollar of the grand list of its members, to defray the expenses of the Society for the ensuing year.

Ed. P. Ackerman, Esq., of the Brattleboro Record, has entered upon a new enterprise. He has opened an advertising agency, and christened it "The Vermont and New England Advertising Agency," making a specialty of Vermont advertising. Mr. Ackerman has just that restless energy which ought to succeed in an undertaking of this kind as we have no doubt it will. Our best wishes.

We copy the above from the Middlebury Register, and wish Mr. Ackerman abundant success in his new enterprise.

MANUFACTURING.—The Adams Manufacturing Company of Castleton, employ one hundred hands in the manufacture of one hundred thousand slate pencils per day.

VT. HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—The Vermont Historical Society has appointed for orator at its next annual meeting Hon. Benjamin H. Steele, of Derby, and for substitute, Henry Clark, Esq., of Rutland.

OBITUARY.—Mr. James Lyon an old citizen of Middlebury died in Providence, R. I., on Saturday, aged about 70 years.

Mr. Jonathan Seeley, a prominent citizen of Middlebury, died at his residence Sunday evening at the age of 73 years.

Brevet Captain Charles F. Rockwell, Ordnance Department United States Army, son of W. H. Rockwell, Esq., of Brattleboro, a young man with many friends and of much promise, died at Washington, D. C., Nov. 13, of typho-malarial fever.

BELDEN FALLS RAILROAD.—The survey of the Belden's Falls Railroad Branch, chartered at the late session of the Legislature, has been commenced by Messrs. J. H. Simmons and O. Wooster. This road is to run from Belden's Falls in a South East direction and terminate near East Middlebury. The Belden's Falls Marble Company propose to erect a large mill at the Falls, with capacity sufficient to meet the wants of all the quarries along the proposed road.

How often do you hear the complaint from mother and father that their son or daughter is not well; that they have no appetite; that they feel languid; that their heads ache; that they are growing thin and feeble; and that they have no life or energy left. That they are low-spirited, and perfectly incapacitated to participate in any pleasures, or perform any mental or physical duty. And the question is often asked, what shall I do for them? or, what shall I give them? Our answer is, let them try Plantation Bitters moderately three times a day, and our word for it they will recover.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.
